

Information on Tsunami Disaster Recovery Efforts:

U.S. Citizens

Family members seeking information regarding U.S. Citizens should contact the United States Office of Overseas Citizens Services at (888)407-4747 or (202) 647-5225. You may also contact the U.S. Embassy in the affected country, please select the link for the State Department's list of U.S. Embassies http://www.travel.state.gov/travel/tips/embassies/embassies_1214.html.

Non-U.S. Citizens

If you are seeking information regarding non-U.S. citizens, please contact the respective consulate of the country.

Please visit the ICRC, International Committee of the Red Cross at <http://www.icrc.org/home.nsf/home/webfamilylinks#a9>. The aim of the ICRC's familylinks website is to help those separated by conflict or disaster to find information about their loved ones in order to restore contact. Also, please note that due to heavy volumes of visitors to this site it may be hard to access at times, please keep trying, it is a working site. If you can not locate the name of your relative, you may post your own name or the name of the missing family member. This information is offered the ICRC, but is not tracked or verified by the American Red Cross or the ICRC, but offered as a stand-alone internet tool for inquirers.
